

city of greenville

News Release

PIEDMONT NATURAL GAS DOWNTOWN ALIVE LAUNCHES GIMME THE GIG CONTEST

Local bands battle for online votes to earn spot at weekly concert series

Greenville, S.C. –Piedmont Natural Gas Downtown Alive presented by Clemson MBA will give local bands the opportunity to earn a paid gig at the concert series as part of a Gimme the Gig band contest. Now through May 31, bands are invited to submit their audio or video for the opportunity to earn a spot at the popular weekly concert series.

Participating bands will ultimately be narrowed down to a maximum of five finalists, giving music fans the opportunity to cast a vote for their favorite band online at facebook.com/downtownalive. The band receiving the largest number of votes will earn a paid gig at Piedmont Natural Gas Downtown Alive on August 27.

To enter the competition, bands can submit links to Josh McGee, entertainment coordinator, at jmcgee@greenvillesc.gov. The contest is free and additional rules are online at www.greenvillesc.gov/PublicInfo_Events/forms/GimmetheGig2015-Rules.pdf. For more information about Piedmont Natural Gas Downtown Alive, visit events.greenvillesc.gov or follow the event on social media.

###